Theater Sgaramusch – Portrait

Nora Vonder Mühl and Stefan Colombo have been working together continuously for over 25 years.

Together with a variety of collaborators they create theater for young audiences.

They want to inspire, challenge, and stimulate questions.

They are known for their irrepressible desire to try out new creative approaches.

They develop pieces from different genres, consciously creating worlds with reduced means because they trust in their audience's imagination.

The depth of their material is based on thoroughly researched social issues; the stories keep their finger on the pulse of time.

Vonder Mühl, Colombo and Co. tour on big and small stages all over the world.

Every performance becomes a unique experience.

In 2018, Theater Sgaramusch received the Swiss Grand Prix Theater/Hans-Reinhardt-Ring Award.
